Secretary.

About six weeks ago a man stopped me on the street and asked me to hunt him a house and lot. In a week's time I had located him in good shape. He bought the house and lot and told me ten days later he would not take $500 dollars for his bargain. Call me on Independent telephone, either 17 or 98.
I'll meet you at L. P. Haley's law office and do as much for you. Six bargains now on hand.
Some of them like paying rent.

W. M. U. Meets

The W. M. U. of the Baptist church met Monday, March 27, at the home of Mrs. Dave Reeder. This being the last meeting for the Home Mission Collection, much time was given up to that.
The amount raised was $35.

Having finished a mission book called "Royal Service," another was given out called "King's Highway". With such books as these, the mission cause has been greatly helped.
Every member promptly responded to the mission call.

After the meeting came to a close Mrs. Reeder surprised the president, Mrs. Chandler, by calling on Mrs. Betts for a few lines of poetry dedicated to the president in honor of her birthday. This original poem was decorated with blue ribbon and ivy leaves. Mrs. Betts and Mrs.
Chandler were school mates and this friendship formed a greater part of her talk. Mrs. Ceandler was very much surprised as she did not know any one knew of her birthday. Her surprise was even grater when Mrs. Donaldson rose to give a few verses that would almost put some of the poets to shame. Her verses were very laughable. Just as Mrs. Chandler tried to gather up a few words Mrs. O'Briant asked for a few moments to speak but was too weak to make her own gestures so asked Mrs. Hawkins to make them as she read.

Following this Mrs. McCool rushed in with a bunch of isis tied with flowing white satin ribbon and presented them from the W. M. U. Mrs. Reeder presented her with a crocheted yoke. Mrs. Chandler's surprise was so great that she could hardly express her appreciation.
The pastor, Rev. O'Briant, closed the meeting with a beautiful prayer for the president and all the members.

The next meeting is to be with Mrs. W. A. Houston.

Mrs. Cole Entertains Bridge and Five Hundred Clubs

The members of the Five Hundred and Bridge clubs were beautifully entertained on last Saturday afternoon by Mrs.
George Cole, Jr. Mrs. Cole's entertainments are always anticipated with much pleasure, end even tho the rain fell in torrents, all the guests, with the exception of a few, met at the appointed hour and were welcomed by the charming hostess who conducted them to the punch bowl where they were served to refreshing fruit punch by Miss Hilary Ward.

After a number of interesting games a delicious plate luncheon was enjoyed. At a late hour all departed after having spent a very delightful afternoon.

Civic League Organized,

To the great delight of the citizens of this little city "Queen of the Prairie," a civic league has been organized.

For several years the Lanier Literary Club has had civic committees, which have done both beautiful and credible work, but owing to the constant growth of the town the work has become voluminous, and realizing there is strength in numbers in this instance, it was suggested a civic club be organized. For this purpose quite a number of enthusiastic women met at the Carnegie Library March 28th, 1916.

The object of this meeting was to elect officers and devise ways and means. The following officers were elected, viz:

Mrs. Mollie Allen, president.

Mrs. R. W. Chandler, vice-president.

Mrs. H. L. Morrison, Secretary.

Mrs. James Gordon, treasurer.

Mrs. Nathan Smith, correspondent.

It is supposed that everybody knows what it is to have a civic league—A town kept clean, made beautiful and attractive.
In connection with this, the prizes offered by the Lanier Club still hold good, and the articles published in the paper several weeks ago will be carried out.
We ask everybody to get one of these coupons, which are being distributed; fill it out and enter this contest.

The colored will compete against the colored and the white against the white. Each ward will be visited by a captain who will explain, suggest or help all she can to beautify the property in her ward, both houses and vacant lots.

In the first ward is Mrs. Porter Davis; second ward, Mrs. Will Mabry; third ward, Mrs. B. F.
Ames; fourth ward, Mrs. Jessie Buchanan; fifth ward, Mrs.
Frank Harrell; sixth ward, Mrs.
A. L. Jagoe.

The inspectors are Mesdames.
Allen, Sansom and Reeder.

It was an interesting meeting and the cooperation of every citizen in this town is needed to make this work a perfect success.

Having Mr. R. L. Brandsford as an honorary member, we expect to accomplish great and wonderful things.

Little talks were made at this meeting by Messrs. Price, O'Bry-ant and West were appreciated.
We thank these gentlemen for their encouraging advice.

The next meeting will be held at the Carnegie Library promptly at 2 o'clock, on Friday, April 7th. Let everyone interested in the proposition attend.

When You Buy Drugs

Do You Think About Quality or do you merely call for a certain amount of any given thing? There are many grades of drugs procurable, and if you are not a judge, you should select a family druggist upon whom you can rely. If you buy at our store you can be sure of right quality. We handle only the purest goods. We don't judge quality by price when we buy, but we test all drugs and make sure of purity and right potency. Profit at the expense of a customer's health we do not consider legitimate.

We should like to furnish all of your drugs and drug store goods, on the basis of quality goods at fair prices.
